

Installation kits

All the doors we manufacture, both hinged and sliding, are supplied fully assembled and ready for on-site installation.

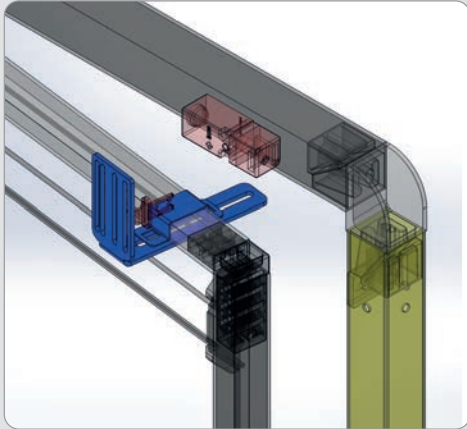

In addition, we provide complete preparations - including pre-drilled holes, fixings, and brackets - for the installation of electric locks and limit switches.

This allows us to offer a comprehensive “turnkey” service, tailored precisely to the customer’s technical specifications.

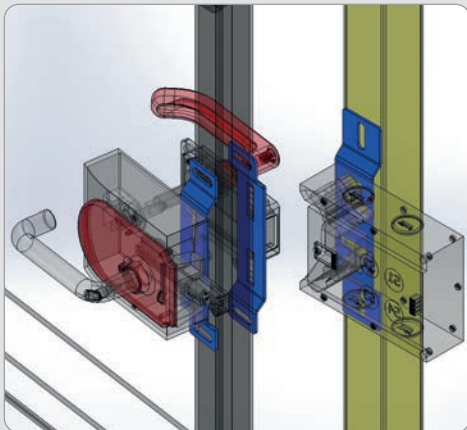

Example of bracket positioning for an electric lock with rear push release.

Image: PIZZATO PKUBE-KROME

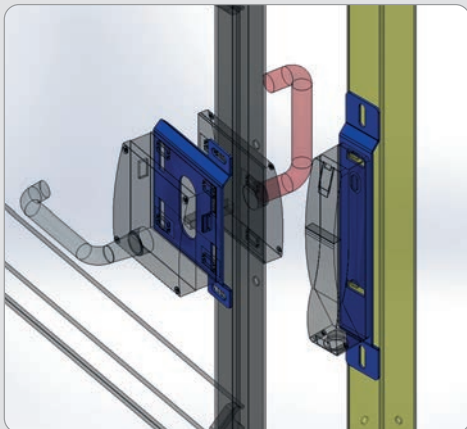

Example of bracket positioning for a mechanical or magnetic safety switch.

Image:
OMRON D4NS

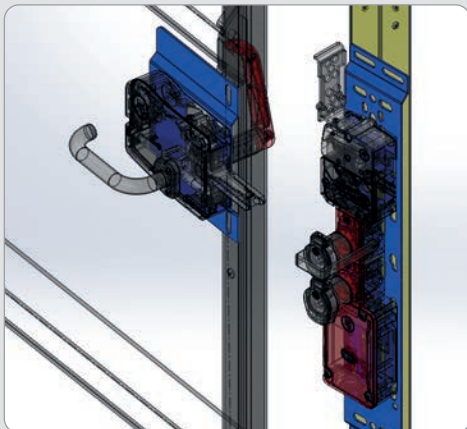

Example of bracket positioning for an electric lock with rear escape release.

Image:
EUCHNER MGB

Example of bracket positioning for an electric lock with rear escape handle.

Image::
SCHMERSAL AZM 200

Example of bracket positioning for a safety switch with handles and communication modules.

Image::
FORTRESS EI4